First Run Pictures To Be Shown Maui On Night Weekly

Productions of the highest class of motion pictures ever brought to the Islands were announced by Manager Dick P. Harris of the Maui Amusement Company upon his return from Honolulu this morning. Such productions are in the nature of an experiment at first but will become a permanent feature of Maui amusements if the public shows that it wants such a service through the support given. Manager Harris went to Honolulu to see David Hornsley, head of three great motion picture producing companies in an effort to bring some of his production to Maui. He succeeded and has made a two months' trial contract with Hornsley for a one night a week first run picture. Such attraction is to be shown on Tuesday nights at the Kahului Theater, their only appearance on Maui. The first offering will be the first national production of "Molly O'" with Mabel Norman in the lead supported by an all star cast.

"Maui people have been asking for a higher class of pictures and we are going to see if they really want such pictures. It has not been easy to tie up with such a big concern as Mr. Hornsley heads. What we are going to do is in the nature of a trial for two months. If the public supports this movement we will increase the service. If the public does not support it, we shall, of course, have to discontinue."

"We are going to show at the Kahului Theater on Tuesday nights the highest class of productions that are shown in Honolulu and at the same prices charged there, 25 and 50 cents. I am very much pleased at the result of my visit and to be able to make this announcement to the public."

Alumni Association Has Birthday; Fine Luau Much Enjoyed
St. Anthony School Alumni Association is a year old and celebrated its entrance into its second year of useful activity with a banquet, or better, a beautiful and delicious luau, on the school grounds on Saturday evening.

Beneath the grand trees that shade the grounds were spread five tables, bedecked with ferns, leaves, hibiscus and greenery and laden with Hawaiian delicacies. At the tables were seated between 100 and 125 members of the association and guests, the latter including a number of the Catholic brothers from Honolulu and Hilo, members of the St. Louis College Alumni, Manager H. B. Penhallow of Wailuku Plantation; Assistant Manager "Bert" Gibb, Engineer J. M. Johnson, J. H. Gray, L. C. Lewis and others from Wailuku and other parts of Maui.

While the luau was in progress J. Garcia rose and started things going in his ever joyous manner as toastmaster. There were talks from Mr. Penhallow, Representative Paschoa, Assistant Manager Gibb, Brother Robert who spoke more at length, perhaps than at any similar affair in his history. Brother Stephen and the brothers from Honolulu and Hilo, J. H. Gray and L. C. Lewis and Clem Croxell gave one of his inimitable Japanese monologues, followed by a wonderful display of slight of hand work and a talk that got down to cases. Early in the evening A. S. Spencer, who piloted the association through its first year, as president, spoke and later Joe Xavier, the new president gave a talk and told some stories that had his hearers "going."

The association has done splendid work in its first year and much more may be expected of it with its steadily gaining strength and support.

Requests For Free Water In Wailuku Raise New Problem

Amori Tract verbally by Mr. Bevin because he was not able to find any memorandum on the schedule which is attached to the water agreement. Concerning the others, we have had no notice except through your letter above referred to.

"Thanking you for giving the above your consideration, we are
Yours truly
"WAILUKU SUGAR COMPANY
"H. B. Penhallow."

The board considered some of the points made in the letter as well taken.

Engineer Explains Further
The report of the engineer was then continued as follows:
"Lots 1, 2 and 3 refer to Lot 3, Valley View Tract, E. R. Bevin, owner; Lot 5, Valley View Tract, J. H. Trask, owner; Lot 7, Valley View Tract, Wendell F. Crockett, owner; respectively.

"Mr. Penhallow's contentions are well taken, and before any one is granted free water he should be required to show:
(1) That the applicant is the undisputed owner of the land for which he is applying free use of water.
(2) The kuleana on which the land is situated, by map or other satisfactory data.
(3) Proof that the land in question has two land up to the amount for which application is made, and in accordance with the agreement entered into between the county, territory, and the Wailuku Sugar Company.
(4) That the land is not drawing any water from open auals.

"The preparation of these data, particularly item 2, in most cases will require considerable time and work and neither the county nor the plantation should be called upon to produce the evidence. A sample of what is required is herewith submitted.

"The map was made in compliance with Mr. Penhallow's letter relative to the several lots in the Valley View Tract. Fortunately, I had access to notes and surveys recently made by Mr. A. C. Alexander, otherwise, the work of getting out such a map would have occupied weeks of time.

Difficulties Multiply
"Incidentally this map illustrates a number of difficulties your honorable board would run into in endeavoring to grant 'free water' to those living on lands that once had taro acres. You will note that the Valley View Tract comprises portions of L. C. A. 444 to Lumilani, L. C. A. 398 to Nalepulehau, and Crown Lands to Kahilikaula. L. C. A. 444 and L. C. A. 398 have taro-acres of 0.07 acre and 0.08 acre, according to the agreement of 1912, respectively; the Crown Lands to Kahilikaula have no taro acres. There is nothing now to show where the 0.07 taro acre is in L. C. A. 444 or 0.08 taro acre in L. C. A. 398. And when lots 1, 2 and 3 apply for free use of water, unless one of the three can conclusively show that the 0.07 acre of taro land was situated in his lot, how will your Honorable Board meet the difficulty?

"Lots 3, 5 and 7 have been granted free use of water. Lot 3 alone has an area of 0.21 acre, more than the whole Valley View Tract may ever hope to claim. Lot 5 is situated on a Kuleana having no taro-acreage whatever, and Lot 7 is only a portion of a piece of land having comparatively small acreage in taro land.

"The problem of water-rights in the town of Wailuku presents many real difficulties. Those enumerated above are but a few of the many. I would therefore respectfully recommend that your Honorable Board reconsider your actions in granting free use of water to Lots 3, 5 and 7 of the Valley View Tract, and deliberate at length on the question of water-rights in the town of Wailuku.

"In taking up the former question of ownership of free water rights with Mr. Penhallow, I had occasion to refer to the transferring of rights from one piece of land to another. Mr. Penhallow stated emphatically that he would not approve of any such transfer, and in his opinion, such transfer was not legal."

Crux of Problem
It will be seen that the crux of the question lies in whether a large area is entitled to free use of water when, prior to the closing of the auals but a small portion of such land used water for irrigation purposes. A grant might include water rights and yet those rights may have been available to only a small part of the area owing to the contour of the land. Thus in a ten acre tract there may have been half an acre that could use the water from an aual though the grant of the whole ten acres contained a grant of "water-rights." The plantation claims it can be required to furnish water to the extent it was used before closing the aual while owners of land now built upon with homes are in some instances, claiming free water under the words of the grant. Thus the plantation might be required to furnish free to the county and the county free to water users water for ten, twenty, thirty or more times the area that used water to the closing of the auals and the putting in of pipe lines from reservoirs.

The board reconsidered its action and will probably take the attitude suggested by the county engineer in future actions on the subject.
